George Behling of Woodhaven in Only One to Except Injury.

Of seven persons who were riding in his automobile when a trolley car, travelling at high speed, crashed into it early yesterday, George Behling, a contractor, of 1429 Hoyd avenue, Woodhaven, Queens, was the only one who was not injured. His son, Harry, 15 years old; Mrs. Flora Behling, 43, and one of his two daughters, Miss Ada Behling, 17, sustained the worst injuries, Mrs. Behling, whose face was lacerated, and Harry were taken to St. Mary's Hospital, Jamaica. It was said there last night that Harry, whose skull was fractured, would probably recover. Others in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Ossar Deutscher, daughter and son-inlaw of Mr. and Mrs. Behling, who live than maintain its nace as the didding than any one shall be added to the produce than maintain its nace as the didding than any one shall be added to said Mr. Grossman. The money was used to enlarge the scope of established branches. Among the improvements contemplated is a campaign for wider cooperation with negro organizations outside of school hours, wider cooperation between organizations of negroes and white people, the establishing of training courses for colored social workers and an effort to obtain better provisions and terms for negroes in public institutions.
